

The South African Institute of the Interior Design Professions (IID)

Student Membership Application Form

This application form applies to students of Architecture, Interior Design and Interior Architecture with a minimum of two years of study successfully completed. Also applies to students of Interior Decorating who are studying a one-year full time Interior Decorating course.

The South African Institute of the Interior Design Professions (IID) is the only professional body representing final year students, practicing professionals, suppliers and education institutions in the Interior Design industry in South Africa. It operates on a national basis with representation in Gauteng, KwaZulu-Natal and the Eastern and Western Cape. The Institute is dedicated to establishing, promoting and maintaining expertise, professionalism and high standards throughout the industry.

Join the IID and add your voice to the organization working for the future of the Interior Design profession in South Africa.

Membership Categories & Criteria

Owing to changes that may occur in the education sector the membership and admission criteria of the Institute may change from time to time.

Student Member

Any person who is currently engaged in obtaining a full-time 3 year diploma or a minimum full time 3 year degree from an accredited educational institution. The applicant must have successfully completed a minimum of two years on the program and must be engaged in the 3rd year of the Interior Design or Architecture program at the accredited educational institute. If a student is studying at an institute that is not currently accredited by the institute, a portfolio may be requested and the applicant will need to satisfy the IID National Council of his/her professional competence and suitability by compliance with the requirements set out in the application form.

This category also applies to any person who is in the process of obtaining a minimum 1 year full time qualification from an accredited educational institution and has just entered the Interior Décor market. If a part-time course has been completed, a student may also apply and will be subject to the approval by the IID National Council of his/her competence and suitability by compliance with the requirements set out in the application form.
